

MASTER OF ARTS PHILOSOPHY

AREAS OF STRENGTH

LEGAL/POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY

NEUROPHILOSOPHY / PHILOSOPHY OF MIND

KANT AND POST-KANTIAN GERMAN PHILOSOPHY

WHY GSU?

- MA program consistently considered one of the best in the nation
- Excellent placement record
- Funding and scholarship opportunities
- JD/MA program consistently considered one of the best in the nation
- 18 Faculty Members
- Neurophilosophy track affiliated with GSU's Neuroscience Institute
- Exchange programs with Sorbonne (Paris) and Bielefeld University (Germany)
- Home of the Jean Beer Blumenfeld Center for Ethics

FUNDING

- Every student receives a tuition waiver and a stipend
- Legal/Political Scholarship - $15K/year
- Brains & Behavior Fellowship (2) - $15K/year
- German Philosophy Scholarship - $15K/year
- Assistantships (up to 20) - $5K-$10K/year

ADMISSIONS DEADLINES

FALL ADMISSIONS ONLY

Round 1: February 1

(Deadline to be considered for Fellowships or Scholarships)

Round 2: April 15

(Final Deadline; No exceptions)

cas.gsu.edu/graduate-studies/admissions/

Dr. Tim O'Keefe, Director of Graduate Studies

tokeefe@gsu.edu

25 Park Place, 16th Floor

Atlanta, GA 30303

404.413.6100